

Dictaphone – Suitcase EP – 12” Vinyl (BBTQ001)

The newly founded, Zürich-based label BITBOUTIQUE RECORDINGS celebrates its entrance into the world of music-publishing with the presentation of its first E.P. Consisting of four tracks, the “SUITCASE E.P.” by production-duo DICTAPHONE, combines Electro, Electropop and Minimal on compact 12” Vinyl – and includes the “It Suits U” remix by CANSON.

Dictaphone:

For 13 years, Mike Tschudi and Stefan Guettinger have been producing music together under various alias: Fallout, Sonicfoam and Tschudi/Guettinger. As DICTAPHONE, their tracks have appeared on the “Substrat”-Double-CD “Innovation durch Irritation” (Stattmusik) and “Mikro Werk /0.1”-Compilation (Mikro).

With their 12“ “Suitcase E.P.”, DICTAPHONE not only celebrate their first Vinyl-Release, but also present the first label-release by Bitboutique Recordings. Tschudi and Guettinger see themselves as part of the “Atari Generation”, they value playful melodies and minimal beats highly. Dictaphone – Lame or Game? Rest assured: Notwithstanding their delicate and playful approach, their sound rocks the dancefloor. The four tracks also show their potential on a home system - exactly the right choice for lovers of detail and minimalists with high expectations.

Canson:

CANSON is Amar Derradj - born in 1976, he lives in Zürich. Since 1999, he has been appearing live regularly, either with the live combo “Anatol” or solo, as CANSON. In April 2000 „Anatol“ released a 12“ on the label Stattmusik (statt02); various live appearances in locations and international clubs followed. February 2002 saw the first Canson release on Stattmusik (statt04) and in April 2002 a 12“ followed on his own newly founded label Handheld (han001) – quote: reviewer Bleed, of De:Bug Magazine, “a bewitching record. From beginning to end”. The “It suits you – Remix” of the Dictaphone Track “Suitcase” completes Amar’s present discography. In the Future, Amar Derradj will concentrate on his solo project, CANSON.
